TAKEAWAYS

Before you begin your advocacy around an issue, make sure you have the correct information.

- Is the issue addressed by legislation or the administration of a law or policy by the executive or administrative agencies that implement it?
- Who are the agencies or people with jurisdiction over that issue?
- How do your members figure out who is THEIR representative?
- Before you support or oppose a candidate.
 - What office are they running for?
 - What branch is the office in? Legislative, executive or judicial?
 - What is the jurisdiction (area) covered?

Issue Identification

Now is the time to identify the issues or campaigns that are motivating you to take action. This list will change, but it is a good exercise to plan your advocacy.

Write down two important issues in each category

Issues that affect you/your members in an immediate and practical way (examples: "The roads in my area are all broken and are causing damage to my car." "I want my son to get his COVID shot, but it is not available")

1.

Issues that affects the community in which your organization operates (examples: "I think school vouchers harm public schools" "I am concerned about homelessness in my area" "I am concerned about voting rights in federal elections"

1.

Are there organizations working on these issues?

What are some terms to use consistently and positively to describe your issue?
